Personal conduct of a high caliber conducive to learning is an objective of the Garrett County Schools. The Garrett County Public Schools policy regarding Discipline and Personal Conduct will be found in the "Student's Rights, Responsibilities, and Discipline Handbook."

Although all revisions to the "Student's Rights, Responsibilities, and Discipline Handbook" are not listed separately in this policy, action taken on any revision to the handbook is recorded in the Minutes of Public Schools meetings.

Last Modified by Karen Brewer on October 27, 2014