A school bus accident requires immediate action on the part of the public school and emergency response systems. It is imperative that these systems and the people in them work together to mitigate an accident involving school children.

The Board of Education authorizes the Superintendent to develop administrative procedures regarding public school responses to school bus accidents.

Last Modified by Karen Brewer on December 15, 2014